Death of William Watterson

William Watterson, a pioneer resident of this city and a prominent real estate man in this section, died at the Elliott hotel in Brookfield at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. Watterson had been in failing health the past year, suffering from heart and stomach troubles, but none of his family or intimate friends suspected that his earthly career was so near at end. He had driven to Brookfield Sunday afternoon, expecting to be in that city to transact some business Monday morning. He was taken suddenly ill late Sunday afternoon, but was feeling better on Monday. However, Monday afternoon he commenced sinking, and on Tuesday morning the end came. Mrs. Watterson, Howard, a son, and his wife were at the bedside during the last hours.

The remains were brought home on the afternoon train Tuesday, and on Thursday at 1 p. m. the funeral was conducted at the M. E. Church under the auspices of the A. F. & A. M., of which deceased had long been a member. The funeral oration was delivered by the Rev. Geo. W. Trotter. The attendance was probably larger than that of any funeral ever conducted in this city, and the floral offerings were many and very beautiful. Interment was made at Lake-side cemetery.

William Watterson was born in Belmont county, Ohio, March 13, 1864, coming to Missouri when but a child. He was reared on a farm near Meadville, and on December 22, 1885, was united in marriage to Miss Minnie L. Jaynes. To this union were born three sons, one having died in infancy. The subject of this sketch was for a number of years engaged in the blacksmith and wagon business in Sumner, and later conducted a mercantile establishment in this city. About ten years ago he entered the real estate business with offices in Sumner and he was known in many states.

"Bill", as he was generally known, had as many, if not more friends than any other man in this section of the country; he numbered his friends by his acquaintances, and whenever he made a mistake, as all humans sometimes do, he was always ready and willing to make amends. "Bill's" ready-wit and hearty laugh will be sadly missed by his many friends.

Deceased is survived by the wife, two sons, Howard R. of Chillicothe, and Wm., Jr. of this city, the mother, Mrs. Richard Watterson, three sisters, Mrs. J. H. Edgerton of Sulphur Springs, Ark., Mrs. F. L. Sorby of Kansas City and Mrs. L. E. Buckles of Moulton, Iowa, and two brothers, Tom Watterson of Iowa, Kansas, and S. E. Watterson of Kansas City, all of whom were present at the funeral.

The bereft relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Bill Watterson was one of nature's big hearted men and one of the staunchest of friends. The Courier extends deepest sympathy to his family.

Mrs. Painter State Regent

Last Friday Daughters of the Revolution in session in St. Louis elected Mrs. W. R. Painter, wife of our Lieut. Governor, State Regent, the result of a sort of landslide in her favor, precipitated by the absence of Mrs. Painter from the meeting, she being at the bedside of her mother in Carrollton, it is thought by some supporters of her only opponent.

The Daughters voted against the woman's section of the navy league, following their evident disposition to discourage woman's entry into such public life.

Redeem Your Karo Syrup Labels—Karo Premium Offer

SEND us labels from 50 cents worth of Karo (red or blue) and 85 cents and receive this Wonderful 10½ inch Aluminum Griddle by prepaid parcels post. This griddle retails regularly at $2.25. It cooks uniformly on entire baking surface. Needs no greasing, therefore does not smoke, is as light and bright as a new dollar, never rusts, easily kept clean, will not break and lasts a lifetime.

At great expense we are seeking to place a Karo Aluminum Griddle in the homes of all Karo users, so that Karo—the famous spread for griddle cakes and waffles—may be served on the most deliciously baked cakes that can be made.

the Syrup Choice on Thousands of American Tables

THE woman who keeps the syrup pitcher filled knows better than anyone else how strong the men of her household are for Karo on the griddle cakes, hot biscuits, bread and waffles.

She may not know how many thousand cans of Karo are used in her home-state, but she does know how often her own Karo pitcher is emptied. The forehanded housewife buys Karo by the dozen and keeps it in the pantry ready for the daily filling of the syrup pitcher.
